THE ADDRESS
CORK

together is a special place to be.

Congratulations and welcome to The Address Cork

As you embark on this exciting journey of planning your wedding day, let our Address become yours for this very special time in your life. Our dedicated wedding team is on hand to help you create a day that is as unique as you are.

Stepping through the iconic and enchanting Victorian entrance, your guests will know they have arrived at The Address Cork, one of the city's most distinguished Addresses. The Hotel is nestled on Military Hill overlooking the vibrant city and harbour below in truly magnificent surroundings that are rich in history and culture.

Let The Address Cork be home to your wedding and make your dream day come true.

The Address Cork, The perfect size for your wedding

Large or intimate wedding? Whatever you're planning we have the perfect space for you and your guests.

Bellevue (100 – 200 Guests)

Take those first step as a married couple into The Bellevue, our largest ballroom. Filled with natural daylight, beautifully decorated, ornate floral arrangements, mood lighting and the smiling faces of your loved ones, this is an experience that will stay with you forever as you begin an evening of celebration.

Alexandra (40 – 120 Guests)

The stylish Alexandra is the perfect space for both civil ceremonies and dinner celebrations. It offers contemporary design, flexible table planning, a private entrance and a private bar. You and your guests can celebrate this magical day together.

Embassy (10 - 40 Guest)

If you're planning a truly intimate wedding, The Embassy offers a truly intimate experience. Its boutique décor coupled with stunning views of Cork City make this a fantastically unique and intimate Experience.

Civil Ceremony or Church Wedding?

Many of our guests choose to host their Civil Ceremony within the hotel, The Address Cork offers the perfect choice of rooms and spaces where your guests move through your memorable day with ease and excitement. Elegance and refinement are the first impressions your guest will take away, when they arrive at your civil ceremony in The Address Cork.

The Address Cork is an approved venue to host your civil ceremony, informal blessings and partnerships. For those who are looking for a church wedding, Cork City has many beautiful churches to choose from, the closest being Holy Family Roman Catholic Church & St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church.

Supporting Local, delivering excellence

The Address Cork are committed to an ideal where we can deliver on comfort, luxury and making memories in a way that is more sustainable for our planet.

To support some of the finest food producers in the world and reduce our carbon footprint, our team of chefs have designed a 50 mile menu using the finest, freshest, seasonal ingredients, sourced within 50 miles of the Hotel and prepared with authenticity and style. We believe that every person has the right to not experience hunger. We have partnered with one of Corks longest standing and well-loved charitable organisations “Penny Dinners”. We pledge that for every meal served at a Wedding in The Address Cork we will provide a nutritious meal to those who most need it.

Pre and Post Celebrations On the eve of your wedding day, enjoy a family dinner in McGettigan’s Cookhouse or choose The Embassy for a private dining experience, both perfect for pre and post celebrations.
